SUMMARY

25X1D

A probable military storage depot is located 3 kilometers (km) south of Kavkazskaya (Figure 1). There is no apparent relationship between this depot and other installations in the area.

The probable military storage depot covers 240 acres and contains 3 trackside loading docks, 5 trackside warehouses, 24 other warehouses (6 under construction), 30 barracks, 28 multifamily housing units, 8 administration buildings, 16 support buildings, 2 motor parks, and an athletic field (Figures 2 and 3).

This installation was covered on interpretable photography from KEYHOLE mis-

The [REDACTED] photography was not clear, but it did show about half of the present barracks and housing units, the trackside docks and warehouses, and 6 other warehouses. By [REDACTED] all the housing units had been completed and there were 7 warehouses; however, the locations of some of the warehouses had been changed. No further changes were visible in [REDACTED] but photography of [REDACTED] revealed that 6 warehouses had been added and 6 more were under construction.

DESCRIPTION OF INSTALLATION

Railroad Service

The installation is served by a rail spur which extends 2.5 km west to a junction with the Rostov-Baku rail line.

The installation contains 2 roofed trackside docks (one 170 feet long and one 110 feet long) and another trackside dock (460 feet long). These are located in Area E1.

Road Service

The installation is served by good all-weather roads.

Administration and Troop Housing Area

Area D contains 30 barracks, 28 multifamily housing units, 5 administration buildings, and 10 support buildings. Most of the support buildings are multistory.

General Storage Areas

Area E1 contains 5 warehouses, 2 administration buildings, and a support building. The warehouses are adjacent to a rail spur.

Area E2 contains 6 warehouses, an administration building, and 4 support buildings. All of these are multistory buildings.

Area E3 contains 7 warehouses, 6 warehouses under construction, and a support building.

Equipment Storage/Maintenance Area

Area J contains 2 motor parks (300 by 250 feet and 240 by 160 feet).

Athletic Field

Area K is an athletic field.
